

Education

This theme is primarily focussed on material from the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. It includes a locally crafted cedar easel from Wingham Public School, a cast school bell from Kimbrick Primary School, school furniture (both government issued and locally made), inkwells, slates, disciplinary tools, instruction charts, maps and teaching aids, chalk boards and text books, a crib board and Braille counters used by John Lyon, educational toys, badges and satchels.

