Vision, Mission and Values

Vision: A strong organisation supporting and sustaining a vibrant museum and research centre in such a way that the Manning Valley's heritage and culture is valued, enjoyed and protected.

Mission: To collect, preserve, interpret and research the history of the Manning Valley for the benefit of the local community and visitors.

Values: The following values or guiding principles shape the way in which MVHS behaves and presents itself as an organisation;

- Integrity and ethical conduct are the foundation of our business;
- Recognition of the significance of cultural heritage permeates everything we do;
- An inclusive volunteer workforce is our greatest resource;
- Strong, collaborative relationships with community partners are cherished;
- Community engagement, education and enjoyment guide our priorities.

The Manning Valley Historical Society recognises Museums Australia's Code of Ethics 1999 and acts in accordance with the standards it sets.
